

ONE
VIII

listen my children and you shall hear the true story of Mr Do

-nothing the wellknown parvenu
who

(having dreamed of a corkscrew) studied with Freud a year or two and when Freud got through with Do-

nothing Do
-nothing could do nothing which you
and i are accustomed to accomplish two or three times, and even a few more depending on the remunerativeness of the stimulus(eheu fu

-gaces Postu-
me boo

who)